

he's game

a closer look at gwinnett medical center's tireless chief of orthopedic surgery

Gary Levensgood, M.D., is the chief of orthopedic surgery at Gwinnett Medical Center. He also serves as the team physician for the Arena Football League's Georgia Force, which plays their home games at the Arena at Gwinnett Center. Dr. Levensgood recently opened Sports Medicine South in Lawrenceville, just minutes from Gwinnett Medical Center.

Dr. Levensgood and his wife, Lisa, live in Lilburn with their sons, John (16), Eric (15) and Mark (14) and daughter, Bryn (9). Before becoming a physician, he was a professional soccer player for the Georgia Generals of the former American Soccer League. v&v

Gary Levensgood, M.D., works with Georgia Force player R-Kal Truluck (53) on the sidelines during an AFL game ...

... and takes a break from his hectic life with a fishing expedition to Canada.

Q&A

1 When I was a child I dreamed of becoming the President of the United States of America.

2 My first job was working at Farrell's Ice Cream Parlor and restaurant.

3 I realized I wanted to be a doctor when I was 9 or 10. It fascinated me.

4 If I weren't a doctor I would be a professional soccer coach.

5 To unwind after a long day I go home and CRASH.

6 Right now on my iPod I'm listening to Usher.

7 My favorite thing about Gwinnett is the amount of parks and recreation.

8 The next big thing in my medical specialty is more accurate computer navigation.

9 When I want to get away, I go fishing in Canada or hunting in Argentina.

10 My favorite restaurant is Blue Pointe.

11 My favorite medical TV show is House.

12 If someone made a movie about me, I would be played by Chevy Chase.

13 If I could be any character in literature or entertainment, I would be Daniel Boone.

feel better

Sports injury ailing you? Visit Sports Medicine South in Lawrenceville, just minutes from Gwinnett Medical Center. Learn more at sportsmedsouth.com.

go